

Brain Products Inside*Who is who: Ingo Westermayer, IT Specialist Trainee

Having just finished school Ingo Westermayer decided to become an IT Specialist and applied at Brain Products' IT department. Being an IT enthusiast for a long time, we are very confident that he will be a great aid supporting our IT Manager, Illya Yaroshenko, and will succeed in his apprenticeship. Welcome to our team, Ingo!

Who is who: Benjamin Spinnler, Logistics Department

We are happy to welcome Benjamin Spinnler to our team! Having worked in the shipping and logistics department of an aerospace company in previous years Benjamin will now support our Logistics Manager, Helmut Lutz. Benjamin is replacing Andreas Schmidt whom we wish good luck for his personal and professional future.

Who is who: Christiane Strasser, Office Management

Christiane Strasser used to work as an administrative assistant in the pharmaceutical industry within the past four years. From now on she will support Monika Heiß in order processing and office management and thus replace Juliane Riedel. Juliane left the company to pursue a career in the marketing field. Welcome on board, Christiane!

Who is who: Norbert Hauser, Software Development

Our software development team is growing further! Starting in October, Norbert Hauser will support our Recorder software development manager, Dinh-Phuong Nguyen, in advancing our software and drivers. Having developed interfaces and hardware controllers in the field of neurological diagnostics for about 20 years now, Norbert is an extremely experienced software programmer and we are very happy to welcome him to our team!
